

THE RUBES LIKE LAMBS LED TO THE SLAUGHTER

IN THEIR UNSUSPECTING AND GUILLESS MANNER, THEY PRATTLE ABOUT THE APPROACHING GAME, LITTLE REALIZING WHAT A CATASTROPHE IS IN STORE FOR THEM.

As evidence of the vast amount of interest which is being taken by the Rubes in the approaching slaughter of their baseball aspirations by the undefeated champion team of the Journal, which sad event will occur Monday afternoon, we reprint below the not all dispensed by the manager of the Rubes, Larkin Cleveland, of the DeFuniak Herald, Cleveland's brags about his last issue and as follows: "head and all, alive and squirming."

"Just Before the Battle, Mother," Opposing Forces of the "Rubes" and the Pensacola Journal are Now Facing Each Other and Grimly Awaiting the Signal for the Onset—Rubes Have Invincible Team—Journal Force, Realizing That Defeat Is Certain, Are Quaking in Their Boots and Preparing to Take Defeat Gracefully—Journal Weaklings, Despairing of Other Hope of Victory, Are Said to Have Resorted to Fraud—Big Odds Are Offered on the Rube Team.

Interest in the big Rube-Journal baseball game next Monday at Pensacola is at fever heat, both in Pensacola and all over West Florida. The editor of this war-like publication has received stacks of letters from the "rube" editors stating that they will be on hand in their war-paint and feathers to witness their scything knives in the gore of the Journal boys. One of the "rubes" tells us that everybody except the town marshal is going from his town to root for the Rubes.

The Rube Line-Up.

The following will be the line-up of the Rube team:

Pitcher—Hub Allen, of the Milton Gazette.

Catcher—Frank Hall, DeFuniak Herald "devil."

First Base—Ed. Williams, of the Bonifay Advertiser.

Second Base—W. H. Mapoles, Laurel Hill News.

Third Base—O. C. Moore, Marianna Times-Courier.

Right Field—J. W. Carpenter, Cottondale News.

Center Field—R. W. Storrs, DeFuniak Breeze.

Left Field—Larkin Cleveland, DeFuniak Herald.

Shortstop—W. J. Jones, Chipley Banner.

Umpire—Oscar R. Smith, Florida (Ala.) Democrat.

In addition to the foregoing there will be a large number of substitutes and "rooters" from every printing office in West Florida.

It is reported that when Percy Hayes, of the Journal, saw the line-up of the Rube team he immediately betook himself to prayer, while Mr. Hayes bought an automobile and lit out for Chicago.

The Pensacola printing fraternity is promising the rubes all sorts of a nice time and Mr. Nick Smith, manager of the Pensacola opera house, has invited the Rube editors to the opera on the evening following the game. This is nice of Mr. Smith, and we wish to assure him that the boys greatly appreciate his generosity.

Now, brother Rubes, don't allow any sentiments of gratitude or magnanimity toward these Pensacola peewees for the big times promised us to have the effect of mitigating the trouncing we have stored up for them. Let us first give those Journal boys what they are just asking to get, and attend to their hospitality afterward. All we've got to do is to await the ball and make him sweat.

As to "Rube" Uniforms.

Several of the rubes have written us suggesting various costumes for the country editors. All the uniforms suggested are good, but the variety of suggestions is so great that we have decided to leave the matter of personal adornment to the individual taste and ingenuity of each player. The editor strikes us as an unwarranted piece of extravagance. Let each player get himself up in whatever style best suits him as a rube outfit, but be sure to top up in something.

A Two-Cent Rate.

Pensacola, Fla., Sept. 8, 1911.

Editor DeFuniak Herald:—

Your letter bearing date of September 4th received this morning.

I regret very much that it will be impossible to arrange excursion fares to Pensacola from P. & A. points on September 11th on account of the Journal-Rube game, as there is not sufficient time to make necessary arrangements and publish that. However, will advise that we have published a party fare of two cents per mile each way for parties of ten or more persons traveling together on one ticket, which will be available for this occasion. The party fare each way, to Pensacola from DeFuniak Springs, will be $1.60, from Chipley $2.35 and from Marianna $2.75. It will be necessary that ten or more persons travel together from the same station. Yours truly,

J. W. LURTON,

D. P. A.

This settles it. A two-cent rate is better than nothing. Let everybody go down and root for the "Rubes."

Other Comments.

The following taken from the Florida Democrat shows that the editor of that paper will be on hand to umpire the rat killing:

Larkin Cleveland, editor of the DeFuniak Herald, the paper that is "Liked by many, cursed by some and read by everybody," is getting up a ball team of "rube" editors of West Florida to play against the Pensacola Journal team. The date of the great game has been fixed for next Monday, when it will be pulled off in Pensacola. It promises to be very amusing and a large number of West Florida rooters are going to the city to root for the "rubes." The editor of the Democrat has been asked by Editor Cleveland to umpire this game and he expects to be on hand and handle the indicator.

"I have just sent to The Pensacola Journal the line-up of the Rube team for the big game on the 11th. I have named myself as umpire and hope to see you at the great American slaughter. Think we will have a good run. Be sure to come.

"Yours,"

"T. S. CLEVELAND."

Here is what W. J. Jones, editor of the Chipley Banner, the sassy little shortstop, has to say in regard to the massacre:

"Monday is the eventful day when the Rube editors of West Florida will assemble in Pensacola to wallop the stuff out of the 'mutton heads' of The Journal in a game of ball. Go to! hove. The victory is ours if we ever get them on the diamond."

R. W. Storrs, of the DeFuniak Breeze, the bun center fielder, calls for the calf rope in the following characteristic manner:

Editor Mapoles, of the Laurel Hill News, is the proud papa of a baby boy who arrived last Thursday. Will says he is thinking of taking the youngster down with him to the ball game next Monday as a substitute for Hub Allen if Hub should not care to participate in the slaughter of the innocents for more than three or four innings.

Bill Mapoles, the alleged second baseman, editor of the Laurel Hill News and the ugliest galoot in the world except his daddy, has the gall to spring the following:

That Manager Cleveland of the Rube editors seems to be a little worried over securing an expert catcher to hold down the "Henry Poe" writer and the three-fingered wonder baseball pitcher of the Milton Gazette, we will offer to loan him our fine ten-pound boy who made his arrival in our home last Thursday at 3:30 p. m. The only objection we have to carrying him down is, we are a little suspicious he might be kid-napped on account of his good looks—he's just like his papa.

Remember, the execution will be public and will be attended by thousands and multiplied thousands of enthusiastic supporters of The Journal ball team, but the funeral obsequies will be private.

WANTS BOGUS

HUBBY JUGGED

KATHARINE DREIER WANTS NO

NOTORIETY, BUT WOULD LIKE

TO SEE MAN SHE MARRIED

PROSECUTED FOR BIGAMY.

Special to The Journal

New York, Sept. 8.—While not eager to prosecute because of the unpleasant notoriety it would be sure to provoke, the family of Katharine Dreier, the young society woman of this city who discovered that Edward Trumbull-Smith, the artist to whom she was married here recently has a wife living in England, will interpose

no obstacle to the criminal authorities instituting an action against him for bigamy. The information concerning the existence of the English spouse of the artist, which was conveyed to the new bride by the young man himself, has proved a tremendous shock to the Dreiers, who are very proud and sensitive. Whether the District

Attorney takes cognizance of the matter or not, it is certain that the bride

will ask for an annulment of the ceremony at the earliest opportunity, to the end that she may be restored to her original status. Whatever was one looks at it, Trumbull-Smith, who traces his ancestry back to Governor Trumbull of Connecticut, effectionately called "Jonathan" by George Washington, has made a mess of it and is in a bad fix.

His explanation that he believed his first marriage was illegal and that he had a right to marry again, is considered rather wishy-washy and weak.

In view of the fact that he is said to have had a daughter by the English girl, who is variously reported as being an artist's model and a professional singer.

While the Dreiers decline to shed

any light on the subject, it is suspected here that the sudden departure of the bride for Europe has something to do with the ill-fated marriage. Among the friends of the family, it is the impression that Miss

Dreier, while in England, will make it a point to hunt up the first wife, whose name is said to be Sarah Louisa Jane Pearce and ascertain her position and feelings in the matter. The artist gave the young society woman

the present address of her predecessor, who is now in one of the small cities of Britain and fortified with this, it is believed she will personally confront him.

HAPPY WOMEN.

Plenty of Them in Pensacola, and Good Reason for It.

Wouldn't any woman be happy.

After years of backache suffering,

Days of misery, nights of unrest.

The distress of urinary troubles.

She finds relief and cure?

No reason why any Pensacola reader should suffer in the face of evidence like this:

Mrs. Lizzie Fillingim, 605 North De-

Villiers street, Pensacola, Fla., says:

"I suffered from severe pains in my back and hips and nothing seemed to relieve me. I could hardly stoop and often the attacks were so bad that I was forced to cry aloud. I also had headaches, and did not rest well. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I procured a supply from the Crystal

Pharmacy and after I had taken a few doses I felt better. The pains soon ceased and my health improved. Doan's Kidney Pills are deserving of the highest endorsement." (Statement given April 23, 1908).

A LASTING EFFECT.

On March 24, 1911, Mrs. Fillingim

said: "The benefit I received from

Doan's Kidney Pills three years ago has been permanent. I am constantly recommending this remedy to other kidney sufferers.

Stolen Portrait of "Mona Lisa," for Which $5,000,000 Was Refused

Paris, Sept. 8.—The announcement that Leonardo da Vinci's famous portrait of Madame Lisa del Giocondo of Florence, known as the "Mona Lisa," the costliest painting in the world, had been stolen created a tremendous sensation here, Parisians being said to have forgotten for the time the rumormongers of the late Pat Sheedy, "honest" American gambler, was insignificant compared to the loss of the "Mona Lisa," for which it is said an offer of $5,000,000 has been refused. Art connoisseurs aver that while this seems a monstrous value to place upon a painting, the Leonardo da Vinci masterpiece is second only to the Sistine Madonna in intrinsic value. The portrait of the Florentine lady was painted more than 400 years ago, and the beauty of Mona Lisa has lived through the centuries on this canvas.

hilation and from which the thief carefully removed the portrait from the frame, leaving the frame on a stair-case. The theft of the Gainsborough portrait, stolen from London and recovered many years later through the efforts of the late Pat Sheedy, "honest" American gambler, was insignificant compared to the loss of the "Mona Lisa."

investigate the story told her by him respecting the early marriage of the artist, who realizes he has made an awful blunder.

However the artist may view it, the friends of the young woman do not feel that this investigation will disclose anything that will improve his present unpleasant position which they regard as indefensible.

FLOODS IN CHINA ARE GRADUALLY RECEDING

By Associated Press.

Hankow, China, Sept. 8.—The floods resulting from the Yangtze river overflowing its banks, which transformed hundreds of miles of the Yangtze valley into an enormous lake, and caused a great loss of life, gradually are subsiding.

In addition to the heavy death list many thousands of the natives have been made homeless and destitute.

The rice crop in the provinces of Hupeh and Hunan probably will be an average one, but other cereals have suffered heavily.

The rice crop in Ngan Hwei, another province watered by the Yangtze river, is of an exceptionally poor quality.

ATTACKS ON JEWS ARE TO COMMENCE SOON

Tsaritsyn, Russia, Sept. 8.—Hektorius, the "mad monk of Tsaritsyn," today publicly declared that attacks on Jews would begin after the forthcoming congress of the Black hundred.

This declaration by the Paris priest, whose cantastic methods have started the whole Volga region, has created an impression of semi-panic in this city. Talk of a probable massacre of Jews is current at the bazaars.

Although only thirty-one years old, Hektorius is perhaps the most talked of man in the Russian church today.

"We must pray to God noisily," is his motto.

He—How is this? I come back unexpectedly from my trip and find you flirting with another man. You have deceived me. She—Not any more than you. You told me you would be away eight days and here you are back again the next day. Have you not also deceived me?—Flegende Blaetter.

WOMAN KNOWN HERE DIES IN QUEBEC, CAN.

MRS. CATHERINE GERALD HOYDEN, WIFE OF IMMIGRATION OFFICER, HAD A LARGE NUMBER OF FRIENDS AND RELATIVES IN THIS CITY.

News has been received in this city of the recent death in Quebec, Canada, of Mrs. Catherine Gerald Hayden, wife of Geo. Hayden, immigration officer.

The deceased was well known in this city, where she had a number of relatives and friends, who will learn with much regret of her death.

A recent issue of the Quebec Daily Telegram contained the news of her death and the announcement of the funeral. The funeral was conducted from St. Patrick's church, in that city, and interment was made in St. Patrick's cemetery.

David had accompanied his mother to church, and he noticed she dropped a penny into the contribution plate. On the way home his mother found fault with the sermon.

"Well, mamma," said the little fellow, "what would you expect for a cent?"—Chicago News.
